Duties and Responsibilities
Responsibilities include, but are not limited to the following:

Direct all areas of ministry to children (birth through grade 5) and their families.

- Age-appropriate faith formation: Integrate developmentally-appropriate faith formation into all areas of Children’s Ministries with a focus on discipling children into a vibrant Christian faith in continuity with the Anglican way.
  - Develop and/or carefully review and select age-appropriate curricula, giving attention to depth and quality, biblical soundness, and congruity with Anglican beliefs and practice.
  - Facilitate opportunities for children to engage in doing ministry and Christian service.
  - Lead first Holy Communion classes in coordination with the Rector.
  - Introduce children to Anglican worship, liturgy, and use of the ACNA Book of Common Prayer for age-appropriate faith formation.
  - Affirm and model the priority of prayer for all areas of Children’s Ministries, for children and families, and develop a team of intercessors focusing on these areas.

- Sunday morning: Lead/oversee Sunday morning Children’s Ministries including children’s education hour, children’s church, and nursery weekly throughout the year.
- Develop leaders: Recruit, train, and supervise paid and volunteer staff for all areas of Children’s Ministries, giving special focus to recruiting and developing new leaders.

- Coordinate w/ other ministries in church so that children receive best possible care:
  - Coordinate and facilitate appropriate childcare for all-church events and ministries within the church.
  - Collaborate with other ministry staff for integrated and cohesive alignment between ministries and for children’s ease of transition from one group to the next.
  - Create, organize, and host programs for children during holidays including, but not limited to, Christmas and Holy Week and during special church events.
  - Work with Newcomers’ Ministry to welcome and fully assimilate children and families into church life.

- Support families:
  - Equip and support families in developing a consistent devotional life in their homes.
  - Engage in pastoral care and counsel with parents and families as appropriate.

- Outreach and mission:
  - Engage in outreach to unchurched families in the community.
  - Organize and lead all aspects of Vacation Bible School each summer, giving balanced focus to further developing children within the church and reaching the unchurched.
  - Foster an environment which is welcoming to children/families with special needs or whose first language is not English.

- Protection of children: Oversee all areas of Protecting God’s Children child and youth protection program for minors within the church including:
  - Completing and maintaining diocesan certification as a trainer for the Protecting God’s Children program.
  - Conducting Protecting God’s Children workshops throughout the year for children and youth workers from All Saints’ Church.
  - Ensuring that all workers remain current in their training and compliant with church and diocesan policies in conjunction with the Rector.
  - Conducting application processes, criminal background checks, and reference checks and maintaining these records in a permanent and confidential manner.
  - Furthering best practices for protection of minors within the church.

- Other expectations
  - Develop, implement, and adhere to the Children’s Ministries annual budget as approved by the Rector and Vestry.

Competencies and Technical Skills

- Strong administrative and organizational skills with the ability to create, sustain, and adjust ministry structures effectively.
- Flexibility and ability to work in a growing and changing ministry environment.
- Effective recruiter, developer, and trainer of ministry leaders and staff, both paid and volunteer.
- Committed team player who works collaboratively with staff under the Rector’s leadership, giving careful attention to the integration of Children’s Ministries into church life.
- Holistic perspective regarding how Children’s Ministries interfaces with and mutually strengthens other areas of church ministry.
- Mature pastoral insight and self-awareness, with the ability to establish and maintain healthy boundaries and attentiveness to appropriate self-care.
• Understanding of sound biblical and theological principles and the ability to thoughtfully integrate them into all areas of Children’s Ministries.
• Proficient in Microsoft Office programs and a willingness to learn and adapt to new technologies for continued effectiveness.
• Thorough knowledge of English usage, spelling, grammar, and punctuation with the ability to communicate effectively both orally and in writing. Proficiency in Spanish a plus.
• Willingness to be a self-starter and to take initiative.

Character/Spiritual Qualities
• Practice a consistent, vibrant Christian faith and daily devotional life.
• Demonstrate a strong work ethic and sense of responsibility.
• Exhibit Christian integrity in all areas of life and ministry.
• Project a sincere and genuine sense of welcome and concern.
• Seek God’s guidance through prayer, study, and counsel for all areas of ministry responsibility.
