Commissioning and Orientation

On August 7, 2024, members of the court were administered their oath of office and commissioned by Archbishop Steve Wood. Following the commissioning, members of the court received an orientation related to the work and procedures of the court.

Continuity of Archbishop Appointments to the Court

Archbishop Steve Wood confirmed the continuation of the former appointments to the court previously made by Archbishop Foley Beach which include Mr. C. Alan Runyan, Esq. as provincial prosecutor and the Honorable Tad Brenner as legal advisor to the court.

In the Matter of the Rt. Rev. Stewart Ruch III

The court met in August and received a briefing and status update on the matter of the Rt. Rev. Stewart Ruch III. The administrative team of the court will be holding a scheduling conference with the parties during the month of August 2024 after which it will issue a scheduling Order to ensure this matter proceeds under the new court in a fashion consistent with the objectives of securing a just and speedy determination of every action brought within the Provincial Ecclesiastical Trial Courts of the Province.
